

IAWP 93rd International Educational Conference
June 18-23, 2006
Hyatt Regency
Louisville, Kentucky

For questions, please contact:
Mary Rogers, 2006 Local Arrangements Chair

The IAWP 93rd International Educational Conference is an annual conference where local, state, national and international workforce leaders and partners gather to share their common experiences and challenges in building a highly skilled and adaptable workforce. For further conference details, view the conference brochure.

The IAWP 93rd International Educational Conference will focus on workshops and activities within the following areas:

- Employment & Training
- Unemployment Insurance
- Professional Development Trends & Technology
- and an Employer's Summit.

Check the agenda link regularly; it will be updated as the event draws closer. CEUs for this educational event are available through the University of Kentucky.

Join us for the workforce systems educational experience of the year! You will gain knowledge in new techniques and receive beneficial networking opportunities when you share with attendees from across the globe.

Check the conference Web site regularly at www.iawponline.org for conference updates, as well as for information on the many appealing area attractions that are available to you before and after the conference. Preview the sights and sounds of the 93rd International Conference. The Kentucky Chapter welcomes you to the IAWP 93rd International Educational Conference.

Online registration is available by clicking the following link <http://www.mga-inc.com/conference/iawp2006>; meanwhile, mark your calendar now to spend June 18-23, 2006, at the Hyatt Regency, Louisville, Kentucky, for the IAWP 93rd International Educational Conference.

To view further conference details click on <http://www.iawponline.org/education/conference/index.htm>.